

Want to pursue your Research Masters or PhD at a Top-Ranking, World Class University?

The Philippines Commission on Higher Education (CHED) and RMIT University are co-funding eligible faculty and non-teaching staff of Philippine Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) to pursue their research studies at RMIT University in Melbourne, Australia.

Scholarship covers full tuition and living expenses.

Research Priority Areas:

- Architecture
- Art and Design
- Communication and Media Studies
- Education and Training
- Engineering: Aerospace, Electrical, Electronic, Materials and Mechanical

Visit our website for further information:

www.rmit.edu.au/research

Contact: sgr.admissions@rmit.edu.au

Applications Close 15 September 2019.

